REALITY THERAPY INTENSIVE WORKSHOP

July 18 - 20, 2015
Saturday through Monday

This workshop includes a discussion of Reality Therapy, Choice Theory, the Counseling Environment, Environment, Procedures, and special applications to schools, coaching employees, and therapy/counseling.

It also includes role play demonstrations of individual and family counseling as well as ideas for using RT in a classroom. Special emphasis is given to the practice of the method by the participants. They will be supervised in small groups by a teacher and practitioner of REALITY THERAPY and will receive individual feedback. They will learn no-nonsense practical skills immediately applicable on the job - including clarification of wants, determining behavioral direction, 7 forms of evaluation, characteristics of plans (The WDEP system of Reality Therapy).

WHO SHOULD ATTEND: Anyone interested in helping people more efficiently: therapists, teachers, supervisors, administrators, nurses, counselors, personnel workers, clergy, EAP workers, volunteers in community agencies, psychologists, social workers, corrections workers, etc.

ENROLLMENT IS LIMITED
PLEASE REGISTER EARLY

QUESTIONS? Call Monday through Friday, 9-5 ET

CERTIFICATION IN REALITY THERAPY

This workshop is conducted in conjunction with The William Glasser International and is applicable for certification in Reality Therapy, a process whereby a person is recognized as having completed the 18 month training program. It will serve as a "Basic Training" for those who have not had such a week and as an "Advanced Training" (if there are 6 or more applicants) for those who are already in RT Training and have completed a practicum in Reality Therapy.

Robert E. Wubbolding, EdD, NCC, BCC internationally known teacher, author and practitioner of Reality Therapy, has taught Choice Theory and Reality Therapy in the United States, Europe, Middle East, and Asia. His contributions to the theory and practice include the ideas of "Positive Symptoms", "The Cycle of Counseling", "5 Levels of Commitment". He has also expanded significantly the Procedure of "evaluation." He has written extensively on Reality Therapy including A Set of Directions for Putting and Keeping Yourself Together, Counseling with Reality Therapy, co-authored with John Brickell and Reality Therapy for the 21st Century.

He is director of the CENTER FOR REALITY THERAPY, professor emeritus of counseling at Xavier University, former Director of Training for The William Glasser Institute (1988 -2011) in which he monitored the Certification Process and the Instructor Training Program.

Formerly he served as consultant to the drug and alcohol abuse programs of the U.S. Army and Air Force. He was a high school teacher, a group counselor at a Halfway House for Women, an Elementary and Secondary School Counselor, and a teacher of Adult Basic Education. "He is one of my closest and most trusted associates. I couldn't recommend anyone more highly," Wm. Glasser.
